JONES LETTER LIVE TOPIC.

General Regret Over Pilgrim's Keeping It Dark So Long.

Wherever athletes gathered yesterday the "hand you a cigar letter" of W. L. Jones in which was enclosed a $20 check and a photograph of which was published in The SCN was the subject of conversa-tion. It was the general idea that a long Varsity "C" Taken From Capstep had been taken toward the clearing up of the athletic scandals which hitherto have been only whispered about. Just what view the registration committee took of the situation could not be learned, as that body adopted the secret session plan for the meeting on Wednesday night when the evidence was brought up.

when the evidence was brought Lp.
There was, however, general regret that Paul Pilgrim, to whom the check was sent, had delayed for five years before bringing the matter before the registration committee, and the friends of Mr. Jones said that in all probability little value would be attached to the evidence because of its ancient character.
